

Feeding the World: Are We Making Progress?

Thursdays, 3:40 pm – 4:55 pm

Ensminger Room (1204 Kildee Hall)

Date	Speaker/Program
September 2	Isla Global Development Internships Kathy Lynch, Founder and Executive Director Isla https://www.isla-serve.org/
September 9	Possible strategies for a successful Green Revolution version 2.0 for Africa to meet its food and nutrition security goals Dr. Dianah Ngonyama, Associate Director Research Administration & Research Integrity Officer, ISU https://www.research.iastate.edu/
September 16	How URUS, the largest bovine genetics company in the world, is investing in emerging countries to reduce hunger and malnutrition Marcel Petrutiu, Global Development Director, URUS Kendra Spier, Global Development Education Coordinator, URUS https://globaldevelopment.urus.org/
September 23	From Farm to Fork: The role of global supply chains on food security SriRaj Kantamneni, Managing Director, Digital Insights Cargill https://www.cargill.com/
September 30	Using lessons learned in ISU-Uganda Programs as interns and service learners Iowa State University and Makerere University interns and student learners https://www.csrl.cals.iastate.edu/
October 7	COVID-19 vaccine introduction: Experience and lessons learned from 6 nations Brian Castro, Senior Program Officer John Snow, Inc. https://www.jsi.com/
October 14	Farming for the Next Generation: Roots in the Ground Year-Round & Supporting Beginning Farmers Celize Christy, Next Generation Coordinator Practical Farmers of Iowa https://practicalfarmers.org/